

Liabilities in elderly care conference 2014

Reducing legal risk in an ageing Britain

Leading experts will discuss and explain...

- claims, inquests and liabilities
- capacity and safeguarding
- access, funding and delivery

Chaired by Sir Neil McKay, former deputy Chief Executive of NHS

Speakers include: NHS Litigation Authority, CQC, Department of Health, RCGP, HM Coroner, British Geriatrics Society, academics and leading counsel

date: 11 March 2014, 10.00am - 4.45pm

location: Nottingham Conference Centre

audience: Board/senior management, public & private, health and social care

Delegate rate (includes lunch) £150 (exc VAT if applicable)

To register, please email charlotte.smith@brownejacobson.com the benefits...

This one-day conference will give senior managers across health and social care, from public and private sectors, an overview of the legal issues and liabilities which are increasing as a result of our ageing population.

topics:

In addition to the plenary sessions, you will be able to attend streamed workshops suited to your own interests, covering:

- claims, inquests and liabilities
- capacity and safeguarding
- access, funding and delivery

speakers:

In addition to experts from Browne Jacobson, confirmed speakers include:

- Dr Suzette Woodward, Director of Patient Safety, Learning and People, NHS Litigation Authority
- Dr Glen Mason, Director of People, Communities and Local Government, Department of Health
- Miss Mairin Casey, HM Coroner, Nottinghamshire
- Dr Clive Bowman, Hon Visiting Professor, City University London
- Rachel Griffiths, Care Quality Commission
- Professor Peter Bartlett, Nottingham University
- Bridget Dolan, Barrister and Assistant Coroner, Serjeant's Inn Chambers
- Professor David Oliver, President elect of the British Geriatrics Society
- Dr Jonathan Treml, Consultant Geriatrician, University Hospitals Birmingham NHS Foundation Trust
- Professor Sube Banerjee, University of Sussex
- Paul Hodgkin, Founder and Executive Chair, Patient Opinion
- Lucy Bonnerjea, Department of Health
- David Lock, Barrister and QC at Landmark Chambers
- Dr Dennis Cox, RCGP