

The Mental Health Tribunal

An Essential Guide

First

Neil Hickman and Christine Hutchison

This accessible and practical guide demystifies the Mental Health Tribunal (England) and Mental Health Review Tribunal For Wales (MHRTW) for health and social care professionals. Written by a mental health lawyer and a social worker who is also a Specialist Lay Member of the Mental Health Tribunal, it offers essential explanations of all stages of the Tribunal, from advance planning, the hearing itself, what happens after the hearing and how to ensure the welfare of the patient. Top tips, activities, expert quotes, and answers to frequently asked questions will guide you through the whole process, ensuring you have the knowledge and skills you need to prepare for and attend a Tribunal with confidence.

CONTENTS: Introduction / Chapter 1: History and Legal Context / Chapter 2: Applications and References to the Tribunal / Chapter 3: What Powers and Duties Do the Tribunal Have? / Chapter 4: Who is on the Tribunal Panel and What are their Roles? / Chapter 5: Who Should Attend the Tribunal Hearing and Why? / Chapter 6: How do Tribunals Apply the Law? / Chapter 7: Preparing Written Evidence / Chapter 8: Pre-Hearing Matters / Chapter 9: What Happens At The Hearing? / Chapter 10: The Welfare of the Patient / Chapter 11: Decisions, Reviews, Appeals: Disagreements and Complaints / Recommended Further Reading and Online Resources / Glossary of Terms and Abbreviations / Table of Cases / Table of Legislation, Statutory Materials and Guidance

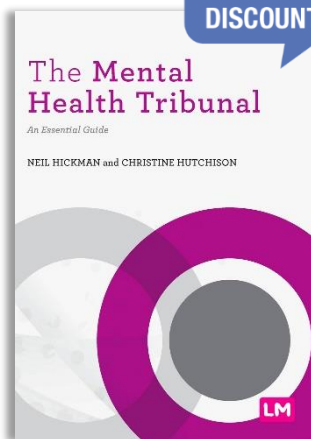

October 2021 • 184 pages

Cloth (978-1-5297-0850-9) £85.00 ~~£63.75~~ • Paper (978-1-5297-0849-3) £27.99 ~~£20.99~~

To claim your 25% discount simply visit sagepub.co.uk, add your book(s) to the basket, and the below discount code at the checkout.

UK21AUTHOR

This offer is valid till 31/12/2021 and cannot be used in conjunction with another offer.

Find out more and order online at sagepublishing.com

 SAGE
Publishing

 LM Learning Matters